Enhancements to POINT Toolset at IBC - POINT Shadow Announced

Amsterdam, IBC, 2004:- e-mediavision.com is announcing today the release of the POINT Shadow, the latest addition to the POINT feature set.

POINT Shadow allows the presenter to remotely interact with live video, graphics and illustrations, without having to use a touch screen or hardwired peripherals.

POINT Shadow is a wireless inter-connection with a current range of up to 100 feet. e-mediavision.com is demonstrating the product on its stand at IBC (3.238).
